

first conditional

1. Choose the second part of the sentence to give an advice.

fall in the water – be robbed – have an accident – arrive late – get sunburnt – fell sick – get bad teeth – get fat.

- a. If you sunbathe too long, you will get sunburnt.
- b. If you eat too much, you will get fat.
- c. If you go on the Octopus, you will feel sick.
- d. If you eat sweets, you will get bad teeth.
- e. If you drive too fast, you will have an accident.
- f. If you stand up in a boat, you will fall in the water.
- g. If you leave your bag open, you will be robbed.
- h. If you get up late, you will arrive late.

2. Choose the correct verb form.

- a. If the weather is / will be nice next Sunday, we go / will go to the beach.
- b. If you don't / won't tidy your room, you don't / won't go out tonight.
- c. If you don't / won't go to bed now, you don't / won't get up early tomorrow.
- d. If you study / will study every day, you pass / will pass all your exams.
- e. If you get / will get fat, you have to / will have to buy some new clothes.
- f. If you don't / won't have money, I lend / will lend you some.