

future: will

1. Write positive or negative sentences about Mary, Rob, Pat and Paul.

	Mary	Rob	Pat and Paul
be a pilot	√	X	X
wear a uniform	X	√	X
work at night	√	√	X
read a book	√	√	√
drive a car	X	√	√
make beds	√	X	X
study Maths	X	X	√
travel a lot	√	√	√
sleep only four hours	X	X	X
do homework	X	√	X

Example: Mary will be a pilot. Rob won't be a pilot. Pat and Paul won't be pilots.

- Mary won't wear a uniform. Rob will wear a uniform. Pat and Paul won't wear a uniform.
- Mary will work at night. Rob will work at night. Pat and Paul won't work at night.
- Mary will read a book. Rob will read a book. Pat and Paul will read a book.
- Mary won't drive a car. Rob will drive a car. Pat and Paul will drive a car.
- Mary will make the beds. Rob won't make the beds. Pat and Paul won't make the beds.
- Mary won't study Maths. Rob won't study Maths. Pat and Paul will study Maths.
- Mary will travel a lot. Rob will travel a lot. Pat and Paul will travel a lot.
- Mary won't sleep only four hours. Rob won't sleep only four hours. Pat and Paul won't sleep only four hours.
- Mary won't do homework. Rob will do homework. Pat and Paul won't do homework.

2. Make questions with 'Do you think ...?' and then answer them about you.

- What time / get home tonight?
What time do you think you will get home tonight? About half past ten.
- Have a bath tonight?
Do you think you will have a bath tonight? I don't think so.
- How long / the film last?
How long do you think the film will last? An hour and a half.
- What time / go to bed?
What time do you think you will go to bed? About eleven.
- Go on holiday next year?
Do you think you will go on holiday next year? I think so. I hope so.

f. Listen to music this afternoon?

Do you think you will listen to music this afternoon? Sure.

g. Read a newspaper this week?

Do you think you will read a newspaper this week? I read a newspaper every day.

h. Spain/ win the football championship?

Do you think Spain will win the football championship? I'm not sure.

i. What time / eat in the evening?

What time do you think you will eat in the evening? About seven, as usual.

j. How long / study for your next exam?

How long do you think you will study for your next exam? About two hours.